

Dear FLOWians

Hereby the agenda for our meeting Wed. December 5, 14-16.

The meeting will in Aalborg take place in FIB1 room 37 and in Copenhagen in CPH ACM15 (A) 2.1.025.

Our theme for the day is interdisciplinarity. We have invited postdoc Rolf Hvidtfeldt, Humanomics Research Centre, Department of Communication & Psychology at AAU (<http://personprofil.aau.dk/139898>) to open the discussion (from the Copenhagen-end).

Rolf is the author of the newly published book The Structure of Interdisciplinary Science. New directions in the Philosophy of Science, Palgrave Macmillan (2018).

For preparation please read chapter 1 (introduction) + chapter 2 (Disciplines and approaches) in Rolfs new book. It can be downloaded for free through your access at AUB:
